Student Council Elections April 26-30

Students To Vote For 14 Officers;
Nomination Deadline Set At April 19

By Dick Henkel

Balloting to elect Student Council officers for the 1948-49 school year will take place the week of April 26 to 30. Two new student posts, provided for in the revised Student Council Constitution are included in the 14 offices to be filled at the elections.

Presidents, vice presidents, secretaries and treasurers of the Senior, Junior and Sophomore classes, plus chairmen of the new Student Athletic Board and the re-organized Social Committee, are the members of the 1948-49 Council to be elected. Following the regular Council meeting held Monday, the Board of Elections appointed by President Howard Naberhaus revealed that nomination blanks for aspiring candidates were to be made available this week.

The following schedule for campus elections was announced:

April 9 — Nomination blanks issued.

April 14-19 — Class meetings; presentation of nominations for all representatives.

April 19 — Deadline for nominations to all offices.

April 20-26 — Campaigning by candidates.

April 26-28 — General elections.

April 29-30 — Special elections.

Under the provisions of the new Council Constitution, only seniors will be eligible to serve as chairman of the Student Athletic Board, while the same post on the Social Committee will be open to either seniors or juniors. Nominations for those offices must be presented with class office nominations at the meeting of either the junior or senior class.

Election of these two chairmen, along with that of the Student Council President, will take place at the special elections. The Council head will be elected

Marxist Defeat Prayer Object

The crucial Italian elections approach, and, as the Pope has directed, Catholics the world over pray for the defeat of the Communists, who, if they win, would multiply their threat to world peace and to the sway of religion.

At Xavier, April 16, has been set aside for devotions to plead for the success of the Christian party in Italy. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed in Bellarmine Chapel for the entire day, and, at 1:15 p.m., special services will be held, the Rev. Frank T. Dietz, S.J., Student Counsellor has announced.

Students will maintain a constant vigil throughout the day, and, according to Howard Naberhaus, Student Council president, all students are urged to participate in some way during the day in these devotions.

A schedule of watches will be posted during the week.

Mt. Glee Club To Sing Here

One hundred and fifty girls composing the Mount St. Joseph College Glee Club will give a concert in South Hall Auditorium next Wednesday at 8 p.m., the Rev. John C. Usher, S.J., moderator of the Clef Club said this week.

Last March 10, the Clef Club gave a concert for the Mount Glee Club, whereupon Dr. Vincent Orlando's gleesters announced they would return the favor.

Summer School Registration Opens April 12

Pre-registration for the summer session will begin Monday, April 12, Rev. J. Peter Buschman, S.J., announced today. Registration may be made either through the student's faculty advisor or directly to the Registrar's Office. Any changes that may be desired, Father Buschman related, will be affected at a later date, providing the student has approval of the Dean. He also urged students who intend to register to so before the final date which is June 16.

Summer courses will be conducted Monday through Friday mornings and will be divided into two separate sessions, the first commencing on June 21 and continuing through July 30, and the second session beginning on August 1 and running till September 3. Students taking the special eight week science courses will begin on June 21 and finish August 13.

This year each student will be privileged to carry two 3-hour courses in both of the summer sessions. Students expecting to enter the science session must be able to devote a minimum of 75 minutes each day to their lectures and two and a half hours per day for laboratory work.

Latest class during the first session will terminate at 1:45 p.m. and the last class during the second session will end at 1:10 p.m.

Job Bureau To Interview

Students graduating in June or August, and war veteran and non-vet students contemplating withdrawal from college, will be interviewed for jobs next Monday, April 12, in Room 47, Albers Hall by the U. S. Employment Service.

The program to assist students has been designed by the Veterans Employment Service of the U. S. Employment Service and will help all college students residents or non-residents of the State of Ohio in obtaining positions.

Mr. Irvin Beumer of the Xavier Placement Bureau has asked all students, veteran or non-veteran, seeking positions to attend the meeting next Monday.

News Banquet Set For May 19

News staff members have circled May 19 on their calendars.

On that date the News' annual banquet will be held in the Hotel Gibson at 6:30 p.m.

The Very Reverend Celestin J. Steiner, S.J., will award keys to staff members at the dinner, and a prominent local journalist will speak.

Invitations to the dinner are being sent to members of the local press, both daily and collegiate.

Frosh-Soph Hop Promises To Be Most Colorful Ever

Tomorrow night, the annual Frosh-Soph Hop will be staged in Memorial Fieldhouse starting at nine o'clock with Chris Christensen and his popularly billed Skyliners filling out the musical menu for one big evening of continuous dancing.

Chris Christensen

John T. Hiltz and James Ryan, presidents of the Sophomore and Freshman classes, respectively, have long been directing the gala preparations as co-chairmen of a large committee of students for the special event which promises to be one of the most colorful and jubilant on-campus social affairs of the post war season. From all indications of the committee's creative talents, the Fieldhouse will be revamped into a resplendent ballroom.

Decorations

Al Virant, Paul Wise, William and John Rinehart, Jim Charles, Bill Segrist, Jack O'Leary, Paul O'Brien, Jerry Feiertag, Mert Hughes, and Bob Hersey have designed and fashioned a wide variety of decorations which include a revolving crystal orb, flooded by colored lights above the dancing arena; a low ceiling and false walls of twisted crepe paper in blue and white; a canopied stairway down to the dance floor; a golden bandstand; and a cozy nook for those preferring to just "sit the next one out."

One of the many novel creations will be the Red Room Nite Club where couples will be seated at small tables under an aura of palm trees, flowers, and Japanese lanterns at a remote distance from the dance court.

Dorm Quartet

During intermissions the Xavier Barber Shop Quartet comprised of Tom Courtney, John Wall, Charles Rubey, and Bob Joyce will render novelty numbers and nostalgic old ballads.

Contest Date Set Back Week

Xavier's fifty-second annual Washington Oratorical Contest is to be held on Tuesday evening, April 20 at eight o'clock in South Hall, the winner of which will receive the coveted and highly prized Alumni Oratorical Medal. This is a postponement of the original date of April 13.

Participants for the contest were chosen by elimination at a preliminary tryout held in South Hall on March 23. Those men who qualified are: Thomas Conway, Paul O'Brien, James Weber, John Burke, Ray Schlichte, Kenneth Urmstrom, Thomas Spraul and Robert Jasany.

Local Catholic Colleges Plan Dance At Moonlight Gardens

A Coney Island dance and party to replace the annual Catholic College Night boat ride-dance will be held Tuesday, May 4, from 8:30 to 12:30 p.m., in Moonlight Gardens, an announcement from dance committee members of Our Lady of Cincinnati, Mt. St. Joseph, and Xavier revealed this week.

The dance in former years was held on the Island Queen until it was destroyed by fire last summer. This year, the dance will be held at Coney Island, and will be under the sponsorship of the three Greater Cincinnati Catholic colleges.

Clyde Trask and his orchestra have been engaged for the event. Tickets for the dance, priced at $1.00 each, will go on sale in the Student Counsellor's Office soon or may be purchased from Student Council representatives by that date. Evening College students may purchase their tickets at the college office.

All students have been asked to purchase their ducats before the night of the event to insure a commission for their respective schools. No allowances will be given to the colleges for ticket purchases at the Moonlight Garden gate.

Tavern To Name Next Year's Host

A new Host will assume his duties as student head of the Mermaid Tavern at the annual Host's Highday, April 12.

To replace the incumbent Bill Bocklage, a 1949 senior will be elected by the Taverners.

Completely recovered from his recent illness which enforced an absence at the previous Easter Monday All Patron Tavern meeting, the Rev. Paul Sweeney, S.J., will be on hand to supervise the election.

University Spring Party Now Scheduled, Saturday, May 8

Rev. Lester A. Linz, S.J., has revealed a change in the date of the University Spring Party, at the Convocation, Monday, April 5. The new date: Saturday, May 8.

The organization that is being coordinated by Father Linz in the parents group are lovers Club, and the Mother's group. In addition, the Campus Committee and the Student Council are proceeding with their plans to provide a portion of the entertainment for the day.

Campaign

In the last meeting of the Campus Committee it was decided their organization should begin a campaign among the dorm students to have the out-of-town students bring their parents to the affair. Meanwhile, the Student Council will institute a similar campaign among the day students.

Plans thus far formulated by the various groups show that the Dads' Club will handle the afternoon activities, the Booklovers will make arrangements for the evening, and special entertainment will be provided by the students under the direction of the combined Student Council and Campus Committee.

To begin the day's activities the Xavier baseball team will compete with the University of Louisville. Then the Fathers' organization will serve a barbecue—buffet supper.

Dance

The next item on the agenda transfers the scene of operations to the Schmidt Fieldhouse, where a card party and dance will ensue under the auspices of the Booklovers.

Sometime during the evening a stage production, in the form of a variety show, will be presented by students.

● Where Is The Intellectual Effort?

ONCE more we take down the crying towel. We are bemoaning the sad lack of student intellectual endeavor as is evidenced by the sorry state the Athenaeum and the Masque Society have come to.

Promised in March, the second issue of the Athenaeum is still in the formulative stage. None of the type has even been set. We believe the Athenaeum in its first edition showed considerable ability, and we must all the more wonder why there has been no second edition.

To date, the Masque Society has not announced its selection of a play for spring. Only two months of school remain. Can it be that there will be no spring play?

It appears that two excellent media of student activity in the intellectual and cultural sphere are going to waste. We know that other colleges and universities continue their activity in these fields. Why, we ask, does Xavier lag?

● Rounding Out Your Education

AS THE years pass by and Xavier continues to turn out staunch citizens who take an active part in the civic affairs of their respective communities, we wonder about the next generation of Musketeers — our own.

Here we, as part of the largest student body ever assembled on the Evanston Campus, are confronted with a lack of interest in school affairs, as witnessed by the absence of participants in class meeting and the comparatively small memberships in various campus organizations. The only activities of great numbers of our collegians are sports-viewing and dance-going. This in itself is commendable, but surely every man on the campus is interested in some phase of at least one of the sundry groups now active in this post-war era.

Organizations are not formed at Xavier on the whim of any individual or collection of individuals. Each club has a definite purpose and was formed with the intention of rounding out the education of the student, whether his aim be accounting or biology.

Education and opportunity await in every campus club. The good fellowship resultant is not to be ignored. Join something and "get into the swing of things".

XAVERIANUS

Rebuts Akron U. Journalist

By Bob Helmes

Xaverianus is of the opinion that a young gentleman, Wesley Jenkins, writing for Akron University's Buchtelite, is confusing not only himself but his readers. He is opposed to universal organizations of world economy, world government, and particularly world church. Says he, "Such systems would necessitate one ruling body or head to act and think for the millions who inhabit our world. World economy, world government, and world church are just a few fields that clamor for a universal organization." Xaverianus can recall no world government to clamor for such a universal organization. The United Nations has never attempted to establish laws for ruling within the countries of her organization. She is merely trying to establish and act on violations of international law. So far this hasn't eliminated thinking. Xaverianus recalls that some Protestant church groups are attempting to unite all Protestant sects, but not to force doctrines on them. The Catholic Church has not entered into this system.

Bob Helmes

Mr. Jenkins continues, "I do not believe Christianity calls for a universal church because Christianity is a way of life, a method of worship, not an organization. As division in nature is a sign of vitality, so is it a good sign in the religious field." Xaverianus fails to see any connection between the two clauses of the last sentence. They are irrelevant. He might as well have said, "It's a good thing to chop a man in half." Mr. Jenkins forgets, "Thou art Peter. And upon this rock I will build My Church. And the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it." (Math: 16, 16-18). Christianity is merely a combination of the doctrines and precepts taught by Christ, which He handed to Peter when He said the foregoing. This would seem to indicate that Christianity does call for a universal church — the Catholic Church, which has continued the unbroken lineage of Peter.

Jenkins claims that the divisions of the Catholic and early Protestant Churches into many denominations have brought distinct contributions that have benefitted Christians to re-study God's work in order to refute or verify the claims of the new sects. For instance? The only thing these divisions have added is error, which has caused otherwise not necessary work for the Church in pointing out to her followers the extent of the error, so that they may not be taken in by it.

Jenkins says that the church abused its privileges, usurped its power to the detriment of its followers, ceased to exist for the people, and began to exist for itself. This statement is typically for a prejudice probably established through a biased or improper course in Church and World History. Thompson, Palm, and Van Nostrand, three non-Catholic historians, give a true and unbiased picture of events of that period. The Church, as the largest property owner of the time, did not have privileges, she had rights. There was no usurpation of her power. Any abuses of Church heads at that time were not abuses of faith and morals, nor to the detriment of the Church's followers. Most trouble was caused by the attempts of civil rulers to appoint relatives and friends into Church offices. Jenkins has no right to particularly blame the Church for such things as simony.

Jenkins feels that unity of church would increase cost (how?), lessen initiative of the clergy, destroy freedom of worship by compulsory acceptance of official doctrines, and undoubtedly cause per-

Fairbanks ???? Fair

Tuesday of last week it disappeared. For forty-eight hours we hunted up, down, and letter high in an all-out search for our "Folderol" only to discover later our quest was all in vain. At present, we will simply have to survive as best we can without the old "Folderol" until the new shipment arrives for the next edition of your News.

"Folderol" Located?

The odd part of the situation is the fact that we are unable to recover our "Folderol" despite its having been located. Thursday, April 1, the guy whose horrible picture so often appears with this column discovered quite by accident that the loss was lurking in one of the dining rooms of a large downtown Cincinnati hotel. While walking across the lower lobby of this hotel he saw the spoor of the "Folderol" spread before him in the form of neat stacks of flashy pamphlets of various sizes and colors. He heard the "Folderol" drone sneaking as unintelligible prattle from behind half closed doors. He noticed the trade mark of the "Folderol" demonstrated on a large sign blaring forth the words "Planned Parenthood Assn. meets here at 3:15 p.m."

April Fool's Party

Now this guy didn't recognize the "Folderol" immediately. Instead, he began to consider the material before him. He pondered the facts that were behind this grandiose April Fool's Party.

There it was! "Planned Parenthood" displayed promiscuously throughout the hotel in a manner calculated to catch the eye and

New Constitution

Gives To Student Body Extension Of Government

Concluding over five months' research, elimination, revising, wrangling debate and heated oratory, Student Council adjourned its fifth special meeting in consideration of its revised Constitution Sunday. The new document, containing a wide range of renovations in Xavier's student government set-up, was referred back to the Revision Committee for final wording prior to ratification.

Outstanding features introduced as the result of Council's lengthy deliberation are the increase of its membership to 18 elected representatives and three ex officio members, and the creation of three standing boards and committees. These groups, — the Judicial Board, the Student Athletic Board, and the Social Committee, — will carry Student Council power and authority into phases of university activity which had been conspicuous because of their lack of control.

The extending of control by the University's highest student legislative body is expected to achieve complete unification and centralization of student welfare through a wider allocation of active participation. A total of 33 student officials will direct the athletic, disciplinary, social and spiritual phases of campus life in cooperation with existing faculty administrative officials.

The new Constitution and its By-laws contain well over 10,000 words and 20 articles, divided evenly between the two parts. Although much of the former document was retained by the Revision Committee, their innovations provide the highlights of interest.

The former 16 class representatives, four from each class, are retained, but membership is supplemented by the inclusion of the Chief Justice of the Judicial Board, the chairman of the Student Athletic Board, the chairman of the Social Committee, the senior Prefect of the Sodality, and a Campus Committee representative as ex officio members.

A detailed scrutiny of the Constitutional provisions for these new bodies is not amiss, for in them lie the fundamental value of the departmentalized set-up.

THE JUDICIAL BOARD will include the Chief Justice, a senior, and one representative-at-large from each of the four classes, the latter to be known as associate justices. All will be appointed by the President of the Student Council in May. The Chief Justice's seat on Council will not carry voting rights, for in forming the disciplinary body and granting it the right to review Council legislation to do otherwise would give the Chief Justice double jurisdiction over issues. All Justices must have held a "B" average scholastically at the time of their appointment, and must retain a "C" average while in office.

Powers of the Judicial Board include those of hearing and deciding all cases involving interpretation of the Constitution and Council acts; judging all judicial action pertaining to academic life on campus; hearing and deciding cases involving infractions of the Student Code of Laws which it maintains and promulgates; hearing student organizational disputes when those organizations agree to abide by its decision, and all other powers delegated to it at various times.

THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE will consist of a chairman elected by the entire student body, and representatives of each class appointed by the President of Council in May. Its powers are fundamentally the same as those held by the Social Committee under previous provisions of the old Constitution. It will meet twice a month; approve, foster, supervise, and/or direct all social activities and their budgets; set dates for activities, and prepare the social calendar to be submitted early in October of each year.

THE STUDENT ATHLETIC BOARD membership will follow that of the Social Committee, and its Chairman will also possess full voting rights in Student Council. Its purposes are to organize, supervise and execute all intramural sports programs in cooperation with the Athletic Department; to co-ordinate the Athletic Dept. with the student body to maintain the highest possible school spirit, and to serve as liaison agent between student and the University's Board of Athletic Control. Its powers grant it the "teeth" to effectively execute these measures, with some qualifying measures in its contact with the Board of Athletic control in previous years.

THE SODALITY PREFECT, as an ex officio member will hold a seat but no vote in Council. He will take office by virtue of his election by the Sodality, and his specific duties charge him with the guidance and execution of spiritual matters involving the student body.

THE CAMPUS COMMITTEE representative in Council, in holding a seat but no vote, will take office by reason of his appointment by the group he represents. The purpose of his office entails the proper and necessary co-ordination of Xavier family life with that of academic life.

The right of referendum is also granted by the Constitution. By the presentation of a petition to Council, signed by five percent of the student body, any act of the Council can be submitted to a campus vote. Such a petition must be filled within one week of the original Council action, and the general vote will be held in due time thereafter. A 66 percent negative vote will be required.

Lucky Kids! Only Campus Members Who Do No Work

Jackie Barker, (left) looks wryly at Bonnie Vickertsky and Jimmy Cullen (in wagon), who want someone to pull them.

The pattering of feet and sound of "kids" yelling, playing and frolicking about which you hear and see in the morning and afternoon hours as you come and go to classes is the young generation of inhabitants of the Veterans' Village on Herald Avenue.

Thirteen children of married veteran students and faculty members inhabit the village.

Most talkative and "wound-up tyke" of the group is blue-eyed, four year old, Ronnie Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shaw. Mr. Shaw is an English instructor. Ronnie never stops, his mother relates, and not to be outdone either is his twin sister Lorraine. They spend most of their day with the other "kids" in the village or play with their dog "Happy," a big Irish setter, who lives right up to his name. The Shaws have one other child, Polly, 6, in the first grade at St. Mark's School in Evanston. Ronnie says he wants to go there too, and even now he likes to walk to Montgomery Road with mother to meet Polly when school is out. But about Xavier, he doesn't know yet, he's thinking pretty seriously though.

Another frisky four-year-old boy in the village is Jackie Barker, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Barker. Jack has a warm canine friend too, a cocker spaniel dog. "Waggles II." Jackie said, "Waggles I" his first spaniel died, so Dad got him another and he just couldn't help naming the new one "Waggles" too.

Two young Mike's live at the village. One is the new "small fry" baby boy of Mike Vickertsky, Mike Jr., born last November. The other Mike is the seven months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Temming. The Vickertsky's have another child, a bright cheery three-year-old daughter, Bonnie.

Jimmy Cullen, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cullen, and Cheryl Westerkamm, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Westerkamm round out the eight children of married students in the village.

Two other faculty members have two children each in their families Mr. and Mrs. Irv Beumer have a two-year-old daughter, Mary Ellen. Most everyone in the village calls her "Mubby." The Beumers' other child is a new baby, the stork having visited their house February 8.

Donna Moore, 7, is the oldest child in the village. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Moore. Mr. Moore is a professor in the history department. The Moore's other daughter is seven month old Frances.

Constitution Provides Power Extension To Student Body

Article IV of the By-laws contains provisions for class meetings and offers one of the strongest points of the Constitution in assuring the right of any student to voice his opinion. All students carrying a minimum of twelve credit hours on campus are members of a particular class according to the number of credit hours they have earned, as prescribed in the Xavier U. Bulletin. The purpose of the class meetings, as stated in the Constitution, is "to enable the class to express its viewpoints and opinions on all matters pertaining to the student in such a way that sane public opinion may be properly formulated by the class officers. . ."

Members of Student Council who took leading roles in formulating the Constitution saw in its provisions and their active execution the answer to one of Xavier's most serious problems — student indifference. What the document hopes to achieve is probably best summed up in its own preamble, which reads, "We, the students of Xavier University, Evanston Campus, in order that we may become truly Christian and capable of thinking, judging, and acting, constantly in accordance with right reason, guided by revelation, and that we may, by a united, concerted effort gain the objectives set forth in the educational policy of Xavier University, do ordain and establish this Constitution."

Serving on the Constitution Revision Committee which drafted the initial rough forms were Jim Cullen, chairman, who left the University at mid-year upon the completion of his courses; Dick Henkel, junior representative and chairman following Cullen's departure; John Dietrich, sophomore representative representative, and Larry Kane, freshman councilman.

Club Entrance Demands Lenient, Prexy States

Requirements for entrance into the Philosophy Club have been changed, according to Ambrose Moorman, president of the club. They are not nearly as strict as was stated in the News in its last edition, which at that time carried the pre-war requirements.

According to Mr. Moorman, "the purpose of the philosophy club is to give those who are sincerely interested in helping others with their knowledge of the fundamental principles of life, that knowledge."

He further stated "we strongly urge all men of Xavier to interest themselves in the practicality of the philosophy which they learn at Xavier. We urge those interested to attend the next meeting at which time the requirements, which call for no more than a deep interest and effort, will be discussed."

Other officers of the club, who were recently elected, include John Busse as Vice-President, John McDonough as Secretary-Treasurer, and William Steenken as Publicity Agent.

Fairbanks Seeks Missing Folderol

draw the curiosity of all who pass. Literally hundreds of pieces of literature, large and small, all bent on the propagation of the idea that a man has no right whatsoever to rear his own family in the manner which Almighty God Himself has prescribed.

Planned Parenthood

There it was! "Planned Parenthood" advertised on a placard which invited the entire Queen City and any visitors to come in and receive free instruction in how to thwart the Divinely instituted purposes of Christian marriage. "Come one, come all! Get the secret of living in sin and escape the 'scourge' of rearing children and building a happy home based on the mutual love of parents for their little ones and each other."

There it was "Planned Parenthood" being discussed by a group who had put their heads together in an effort to grind out a system wherein sin would supplant restraint as the remedy for certain social ills of this country.

Mortal Men?

This was a gathering of mortal men convened to add another mark to the blueprints of a machine designed to dissolve the intentions of God.

"This is the missing 'Folderol'," thought this fellow as he considered the buffoonery and folly that saturated his environs. It seemed to him that finite men who expected to openly oppose an infinite God and simultaneously dodge His Almighty Wrath, must be suffering from chronic willful mental blindness or symptoms worthy of admission to Longveiw.

Thoughts Rearranged

Then this joker rearranged his thoughts somewhat. "Surely this is not our 'Folderol'," he mused. The assumption that such a Hell-bent concoction as "Planned Parenthood" can receive the sanction of the Lord is definitely first fashion foolishness and the worst type of mockery, but our "Folderol" is not aimed with malice toward anyone.

We have run across another brand but at present, ours still numbers among the missing.

BACK STUDENT RELIEF!!

Japan Must Be Christianized, Former Chaplain Tells Forum

Medal Of Honor Holder Calls Japanese Leaders

"The Jap as an enemy was tough and vicious," said the Rev. Joseph O'Callahan, S.J., Xavier Forum speaker April 4, "yet there is the Jap of Nagasaki, who was Christianized by St. Francis Xavier and kept his faith over 350 years." The Forum speaker, who is the only chaplain in American history to win the Congressional Medal of Honor, explains this apparent contradiction by saying that the Japs are such "strong people, strong for good or evil," that "they always have, and always will, dominate the Orient." It is up to us, he contends, to make sure that the Japanese people lead Asia in the right way.

Both the opportunity and the need for seizing it is very great, according to the Jesuit. The opportunity is great because "a whole system of false standards has collapsed" before them. On the other hand, if they do not accept Christianity, "they most certainly will accept Communism." Thus it is imperative that we do not let "MacArthur's good work" be wasted, but be sure that the Japanese get a strong foundation in our philosophy of life.

Accountants Hear I.B.M. Officials

Mr. S. A. Flick, B.S.C., and Mr. William F. Ahern, both of the International Business Machines Corp., will present "An Introduction to the Principles of Punch Card Accounting," at the next meeting of the Xavier Accounting Society, April 13, at 8 p.m., Room 47 of Albers Hall.

The program, a picture-slide presentation, is widely known in executive circles and has previously been shown at many other colleges and universities throughout the country.

Nomination of candidates to the May election of officers for the year 1948-49 will take place at the business meeting immediately preceding the entertainment program.

According to present provisions of the constitution, membership is still open to accounting students from the Evanston and Downtown Campuses.

All faculty, students, alumni, and friends of Xavier are invited to attend.

Maher Replaces Grote

Richard Maher, graduate of last February, has been appointed to the position of assistant director of Public Relations filling the position vacated by Dave Grote, after the latter joined the publicity staff of the Cincinnati Reds.

'X' MEN INVITED TO MOUNT SHOW

All of the juniors of Mt. St. Joseph have pooled their talents to package a gala Variety Show, which for the entertainment of all who desire to attend will be presented April 18 and repeated the following night.

The auditorium of the "college that overlooks the Ohio" is the site for their review and curtain time is at 8:15 p.m.

Miss Ann Murphy of the Mount has extended a special invitation to all Xavier men to watch their sister collegians in a frolicsome, mirthful program.

MASQUE SOCIETY'S SPRING PRODUCTION

The Play's The Thing; Writer Asks, Where Is It?

By Fred Newbill

Along about January the heads of the News bumped together to form some long range plans. They made tentative arrangements for the really big events remaining in the year, and although many contingencies were fully recognized, no one expected this article to appear. No one wanted this article to appear.

Quite the contrary. In mind was a whole series of articles; first a vague announcement, then a few news stories, a large feature perhaps, and finally a huge send off — the best possible — for the Masque Society's big spring play. But there's no play.

What is there? First, there is the Masque Society. It still exists, at least on paper. And we find Charles Lammers, eagerly sought by Xavier officialdom and finally engaged as a director. Mr. Lammers took as his assistant Thomas Kane, another good man. Besides this we have a glorious Masque Society tradition, students presumably as good as those of previous years, and certainly a huge supply of plays from which to choose. In short, we have everything — except a production.

About the only thing the Masque has to show for school year 1947-1948 is a program of three one-act plays — one of which was uniformly unpopular. There is also the television broadcast on December 11 — a notable first for the Masque — but if the Society deigns to save its bolt for the bar trade, its members ought to engage a suitable downtown location, buy a television set, and begin the necessary proceedings to get a liquor permit. What has happened to the great university organization that produced The Comedy of Errors, The Merchant of Venice, Hamlet, Father Malachy's Miracle? Where are the talents that brought forth The Taming of The Shrew, Murder in the Cathedral, or The First Legion?

The play's the thing. Where is it? The News points no fingers. It merely asks questions.

XAVIER ALUMNAE PLAN SPRING PARTY, SOCIAL

GIFTS SOUGHT FOR AFFAIR APRIL 20

In the spring the Alumnae Association's thoughts lightly turn to thoughts of . . . card parties. Scheduled for April 20 at 8 p.m., members plan to provide an evening of cards, a social get-together, and refreshments for a sum of 75 cents per person.

Tickets for the gathering, which will be held at the Homecraft Studios, may be obtained from Miss Julia Halpin, 536 Linden avenue, Newport, or Mrs. Edwin Morrell, 2521 Melrose avenue, Norwood. Inasmuch as the number of guests will be limited to one hundred, members are requested to send remittances and a stamped self-addressed envelope to Miss Halpin or Mrs. Morrell.

Gifts for the combination raffle may be forwarded to Miss Elsie Wolf, 501 York street, Newport, or Miss Alma Kruchten, Modern Engraving company, 817 Main street, Cincinnati.

Miss Julia Halpin is chairman and Mrs. Edwin Morrell co-chairman of the card party.

Xavier Sets Date For Coney Dance

Evening division students as well as Evanston campus men are invited to attend the dance, May 4 at Coney Island's Moonlight Gardens where, traditionally, Clyde Trask will again be playing.

Carl Grome Booster chairman for this event, has announced that tickets will be on sale shortly and may be obtained at the office or through any Booster.

Special provisions, he said, have been made to insure complete comfort to guard against errant breezes of the vagarious Cincinnati spring.

First Year Club To Meet April 14

First Year Clubbers will hold the next meeting of their semi-monthly meetings on Wednesday, April 14, at 8 p.m. The Downtown College auditorium will as usual serve as the meeting place.

Although originally scheduled for April 7, the date was set ahead to avoid conflict with the planning for the Booster Ball, April 9.

Choral Club Concert May 25

South Hall will be the scene of the annual concert presented by the Choral Club, according to Miss Helen Gough, directress. This year's affair will be held on May 25, commencing at 8 p.m.

Leading the cast of soloists will be Art Volck singing "Old Man River." Other principals will be announced at a later date.

Tickets for the performance will be 65 cents. They may be secured from members or through the Evening College office.

RIDING CLUB AT SUNNYSIDE

Xavier's Riding Club hits the trail for the first time this spring, Saturday morning, April 10, at Sunnyside Park, according to Miss Jeanne Dossman, one of the club's riders.

Last fall the Club conducted a series of successful rides at Devou Park. Membership in the club is open to all Xavier students.

BACK STUDENT RELIEF!!

All-Day Picnic At Mt. Airy Forest For FYC Members

Stealing a march on the summer picnic season, the First Year Club has chosen Mt. Airy Forest as the setting for their first outdoor affair of the season on Sunday, April 18. Attendance will be restricted to FYC members and their wives or fiancées.

According to Zetta Gausling, co-president, an afternoon baseball game will touch off the day's activities, with an evening campfire sing scheduled. Old clothes with warm jackets are recommended. Basket lunches will be in order.

Committee members include Alice Mary Rolfes, Joe Gates, Pat Gausling, Jeanne Bauer, and Joe Patterson.

"STARDUST" AT PURCELL

"Stardust," a three-act comedy by Walter Kerr, is the week-end dramatic contribution of the Genesian Guild. Curtain time is 8 p.m. at Purcell High School Saturday, April 10, and Sunday, April 11. Tickets may be purchased at Purcell the nights of the performances.

Under the direction of Miss Sally Moormann, dramatic instructress at Mt. St. Joseph College and graduate of the Catholic University of Washington, D. C., the cast includes: Ferd Hauser of Xavier, Rosemary Groff of Our Lady of Cincinnati College, Bernard Gates of The Schuster Martin School of Drama, and Marilyn Hilvers of Xavier Evening College.

The Genesian Guild, whose purpose is the encouragement of an appreciation of good drama and fine music among the young men and women of the diocese, lists among its past productions, Friml's "Vagabond King," the Broadway success, "You Can't Take It With You," and the opera fantasy, "Briar Rose."

Xavier Evening College students are eligible for membership in the organization. Membership details may be obtained from the Guild's supervisor, Rev. Earl Whalen, at the Fenwick Club.

Kasimu Bolsters Scholarship Fund

In accordance with their program of assisting and furthering the aims of the Evening College, Kasimu president Norbert Backhus has presented Dean O'Connor, S.J., with a $100 cash award to be divided between two students on certificate programs.

First prize is $75.00 and the second $25.00 will be awarded on the basis of scholastic excellence at the June commencement exercises.

Feminine Masquers Select Production

"Sandlewood Box," the poignant story of a European refugee, is the play tentatively scheduled as the final Evening College dramatic production of the year, according to Thelma Dinsmore, chairman.

The play features an all-girl cast; hence, its presentation will be unique in the history of the Masque Society of Xavier.

Students with dramatic inclinations are urged to contact Miss Dinsmore or to register at the office for the tryouts for the Evening College spring production.

IN MEMORIAM

The faculty and student body extend deepest sympathy to Robert Hisel on the death of his mother, and Louis Darpel on the death of his father.

Fr. O'Connor To Be Guest; Choral Club To Serenade

"Xavier-presents-on-Campus," the eight-week series of special Xavier programs broadcast each Saturday at 5:15 p.m. by WKRC will feature the Evening College Saturday, April 24.

Rev. Paul J. O'Connor, S.J., will be the program's special guest, and the Evening College Choral Club will sing. Miss Audrey McCafferty and Miss Marilyn Hilvers will prepare the script and will assist Mr. Joseph C. Link and Mr. C. Charles Lang with the production.

Downtown Xavier students will appear in the cast. Included in the program will be a skit explaining the ideals and purposes of Xavier Evening College as well as the social, cultural and economic contributions to her students.

Miss Helen Gough, director of the Choral Club, has announced tentative vocal contributions for "Xavier-on-Campus" to include Youman's "Hallelujah," Arcadelt's "Ave Maria," and, of course, "Xavier Chimes."

BOOSTERS TO MEET

Summer picnic plans will be discussed at the regular bi-monthly meeting of the Boosters Club on April 11, according to president Russ Weiler. In past years, the summer schedule has included a monthly special get-together for students throughout the summer vacation.

A possible farewell party has also been mentioned as a subject of discussion.

All members are invited.

Wednesday, May 28, U. of Louisville at Xavier.

All-Opponent Teams:

U.K. Cagers Predominate

By Bob McMahon

Following the completion of the NAIB Tournament at Kansas City last month the News Sport Dept. conducted a vote of the basketball team in an effort to determine an All Opponent Team. All of the players of the opponent teams were eligible including those teams met in the NAIB.

After the ballots had been counted it was evident that most of Lew Hirt's men had just about the same opinion as to who were the outstanding opponents. Frank Saul, brilliant guard from Seton Hall, and Jack Kerris, Chicago Loyola's candidate for All-American center honors, were both elected unanimously for the first string berths.

U. of Kentucky was the choice as the best coached team, again testifying to the superb coaching of Adolph Rupp. Hamline University, the team that placed third in the NAIB, was voted as the team that displayed the most sportsmanship.

When it came to naming the best offensive and defensive player the voting became a little more spread out but again the name of Saul was prevalent when he was proclaimed the Best Offensive Player. Ralph Beard of U. K. was deemed the Best Defensive Player the Muskies had to deal with.

The complete first and second All Opponent Teams are as follows:

Marion Hall Gridders Take Dorm Basketball Tourney Downing Barracks 16 In The Finals

High Calibre Of Play Displayed In Contests

A combination of height, speed and experience enabled the Gridders of Marion Hall to defeat Bks 16 in the finals of the intramural tourney in the Fieldhouse, Thursday, April 1, and thereby attain clear claim to the 1948 championship. This tournament win climaxed a very successful season totaling six wins, most of them by wide margins. McQuade and Martinkovic, together with O'Day, Lucijanic, Sigillo, Russo, and Buresh played a fast and furious type of ball, but their greatest asset was their constant control of the backboards.

Bks 16, composed of Such, Mitchell, Ryan, Talbot, Bruton, and Dean, were also undefeated until the tournament finals when their better all around play was nullified by the winners' height and rebounding. Elett Hall's BVD's went to the semi-finals before losing their first one in seven starts to the tourney champs. The Shamrocks, also from Marion Hall, took a close decision from Bks 14 on the first night of the tourney, only to lose to the other finalist, Bks 16, in the semi-finals. Bks 9 and the Bummers also lost out in the first night of play.

All things considered, it would seem that the dorm intramural league operated efficiently this year and the quality of play throughout was of high calibre. Mr. Hiatt, Bob Drennan, Bob Eveslage, the various referees, and all others concerned, are to be commended for the parts they played in making the program a success.

Chessmen To Meet U.C. Here April 16

Previously scheduled for March 29, the chess match between Xavier and the University of Cincinnati was postponed and will be played, Friday, April 16, in the South Hall Auditorium at 8 p.m.

Xavier's lineup for the eight matches which will be played remains unchanged according to Dan Brown, Chess Club President. Pedro Mendez has the first position, and, in order, follow Goodwin Kupris, John Leibold, Bob Dauer, C. Charles Lang, Irvin Stoner, Roy Somhorst, and Richard Riordan.

All students are invited to attend the tournament.

Grid Positions Remain Open In Final Practice Sessions

Nine More Workouts Before Intrasquad Tilt

By Jim Keefe

Quality and quantity. These are the goals Coach Ed Kluska and his aides are striving for as spring football practice goes into the home stretch. Only nine more days of practice remain before the intra-squad game on April 23 officially ends the spring training season.

Coach Kluska has whittled the squad down to a workable group of 55 stalwarts and with these men is doing the experimenting that will decide the calibre of the 1948 gridiron Musketeers. Of these 55, 23 men are backfield candidates, while the remaining 32 "eat dirt" up on the line.

Few Changes In Line

Returning from last year's squad to battle for the flank positions are such men as Jim DeFranco, John Martinovic, Neil Hardy, John Picciano and Jack Tracey. DeFranco has been working out at both end and halfback. At tackles, All-Ohio Ray Stackhouse and Jim Marck are back to defend their positions. Joe Bonie, Carol Helmers, and Dan Kelly are also again on hand to bolster that position. Don Kay, first string guard last year, has been switched to tackle. Tom Ballaban, Joe Zuzga, Mike Varchola, Tom Duff, Maurice Brotze, and Bob Buresh are just a few of the veterans in the race for guard position. Steve O'Dea is back to man the first line center slot he held last year, but he is being closely pressed by Jim Wilson, Len Matuszewski, and Howie Tolbert, a transfer from quarterback position.

Backs Still Uncertain

Nifty Pat Fehring, Walter Hirth, Jim Liber, and Dick Quehl are the only seasoned halfbacks returning from last year's team, and this position will have to be strongly bolstered by candidates from last year's frosh squad. At quarterback, Co-Captain Bob McQuade will again handle the brainwork and passing. His understudies are Jim Mason, Ed

Nolan, and several promising sophomores.

Fullback post is a tossup between Co-Captain Bob Conway, shifted from end, and Jack Oliver.

These veterans are augmented by many members of X.U.'s very fine frosh team of last year and newcomers to the school this spring.

Frosh Candidates

Softball Entries Requested For IM Dorm Team Roster

All dorm students who wish to enter teams in the intramural softball league are requested to turn in a team roster to George Hiatt at the athletic office this week. Several impromptu games have been staged over the past weekend and the veteran Bks 9 squad, behind the steady pitching of their southpaw mound artist, Howie Albrecht, promise to make a strong bid for honors in the forthcoming competition. Bks 7, 10, and 14 have also signified their intention of participating. Although details were not available at press time, it is surmised that competition will be organized along the same lines as that of the recently completed basketball season with a tournament at the end of each round of play to determine intramural champions.

At press time no definite plans had been made regarding the formation of a Day-hop roster. Day-hops interested should contact Mr. Hiatt.

Ten Game Card Listed For Tennis

After holding its initial practice last week, the tennis team has been working out in the Fieldhouse. Next Wednesday, the first outdoor practice will be held on the Oakley courts and each day thereafter until the Xavier courts are ready for use. Coach George Hiatt has announced that students interested in joining the team have until April 10.

As no outstanding tennis athletes are yet listed, the team will rely on its reserve strength to pull it through a twelve game schedule.

The schedule is as follows:

Apr. 24 Marshall, here
Apr. 27 Dayton, there
Apr. 30 Lawrence Tech, here
May 6 Louisville, here
May 8 Kentucky, there
May 15 Louisville, there
May 18 Dayton, here
May 22 Kentucky, here
May 25 Cincinnati, there
May 27 Marshall, there

Sportstistics

By Bob Coates

One glance at the Musketeer baseball schedule lets us know that Coach George Hiatt's stalwarts are not to play any games on Monday, Wednesday or Friday at home. Most of the contests, at home and abroad, are planned for Tuesday, Thursday or Saturday. Considering the hardships entailed in setting up a good schedule which includes top-flight competition we think Coach Hiatt deserves a pat on the back for this accomplishment. Now all we would like to see is a long string of diamond victories starting with Miami tomorrow.

Basketball Captain Art Mort-horst will be married to Miss Jean Buschle of Norwood Saturday, June 5, at St. Peter and Paul Church at 9:30. Ed Bissmeyer, Bob McMahon, Art Thompson and Jack Kyne will be in the wedding party.

The Annual Basketball Banquet honoring this year's record-breaking hoopsters will be held Thursday evening April 29 at the Hotel Alms. The price is $3.00 and festivities will get under way at 6:30 p.m.

This year the student activity book will entitle the students to see all baseball games and the spring football game, April 23. A nominal fee will be asked of non-student spectators for most of the baseball contests. The price for the intra-squad football encounter will be $1 for non-student adults and fifty cents for high school students.

Student Council Elections Set For Week Of April 26-30

from the three senior candidates for class office other than the class President.

Candidates for class office receiving the plurality of votes from their class will be elected President, the second highest man will become Vice President, third highest Secretary, with the fourth successful candidate assuming the treasurer's position.

Ten Seconds Needed

All nominations to office must be accompanied by ten seconds to the nomination. Students seconding the nomination of a candidate will be required to affix their signatures to his nomination blank, and no student may sign two blanks.

The sweeping changes wrought in Xavier's governmental set-up create a total of 33 official student offices. In addition to the 14 elected members of Council, the chairman of a Judicial Board, the Senior Prefect of the Sodality of the Immaculate Conception, and a representative of the Campus Committee will take office in the university's highest legislative body, as officio members.

Three new standing boards and committees — The Judicial Board, the Student Athletic Board, and the Social Committee — will be comprised of one representative from each class to be appointed by the Student Council President sometime in May. The Judicial Board Chief Justice will also be an appointee. Only the chairmen of these groups, however, will possess a Council seat. The chairman in each case will report on the activities of his Board or Committee to Council, at its regularly scheduled weekly meetings.

A breakdown of the 33 student offices as provided for in the new Constitution is as follows:

Upper Classmen

Senior Class — Four class officers, one to serve as President of Student Council; one chairman Student Athletic Board; one representative Campus Committee — all elected. One representative Campus Committee; Senior Prefect of Sodality; Chief Justice Judicial Board; representative-at-large to Athletic Board, Judicial Board, Social Committee, one each — all appointed.

Junior Class — Four class officers, one chairman Social Committee; — all elected. Representatives-at-large to Athletic Board, Judicial Board, Social Committee, one each — all appointed.

Lower Classmen

Sophomore Class — Four class officers, elected. Representatives-at-large to Athletic Board, Judicial Board, Social Committee, one each, all appointed.

Freshmen entering the University in September will choose their officers during the third week of the fall semester, at which time their representatives-at-large to the various boards will also be appointed.

Clements Takes Life Job

Russ Clements last week resigned his student council post to accept a position with Life Magazine.

A group of Council members headed by Howard Nabershaus, Student Council president, will examine the ballots of the last election of seniors to Student Council to ascertain just which one of those candidates not elected to Council was given the greatest number of votes. This man will then be received into Council and elevated to the post of Social Committee Chairman to replace Clements.

Gen. McNarney Reviews ROTC

Xavier University's participation in the annual Army Day ceremonies was highlighted by the brief visit on the campus, of General Joseph T. McNarney who succeeded General Dwight D. Eisenhower as commander of the European Theater of Operations.

Twenty-four cadets, pledges and charter members, of the recently organized Pershing Rifle Company, G-1, formed an armed Guard of Honor, for the General and his party, along the University Drive. This was the first official formation of the new unit which is rapidly expanding to become one of the larger campus organizations.

Fr. Wellmuth's Stories Published

The News learned recently from the Public Relations Office of the Encyclopedia Britannica that Father John Wellmuth, S.J., professor of philosophy and chairman of the Philosophy Department has contributed articles on Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini, Easter, Jesus Christ, portions of an article on the Roman Catholic Church and similar subjects for the new Britannica Junior.

The new work, the "M" printing, is for boys and girls and has been especially adopted for children in regard to legibility, readability and color appeal.

Fr. Wellmuth is one of 400 contributors to this work which contains 5,600 illustrations and 1,950 pages.

Xaverianus notes that the only universal Church today, the Roman Catholic, has never suffered from any of the foregoing. Her clergy is perhaps the most ambitious of all. Her members are forced to accept no doctrine, and are free to worship. The Church even encourages her members to investigate her doctrines in order to be sure that what they are believing is true.

Xaverianus feels that Mr. Jenkins would do well to thoroughly follow a portion of the last sentence of his article "by learning both sides of all issues and by foreseeing the results."
